

The 1961 Lock Staff Reveals

"The Anatomy of Our School"

Our Development

Man has been endowed with a mind and the power to think and learn. His anatomy is more complex than any other animal on earth. But the anatomy of a school is unique. It is composed of many human beings, their activities, their happiness, their disappointments.

The school's skeleton is the faculty and the advisors. Without the skeleton, the body would be a useless mass. The muscles co-ordinate and unify the movement of the body as the athletics of the school unify the students. The awards and honors constitute the school's nervous system by keeping the students alert and providing them with higher goals for which to strive. The heart, center of life itself in the body, is the student, the center of life in the school.

Both the school and the body are composed of many parts, but all are needed to perform a particular task to enable the harmonious functioning of the whole.

We of the LOCK staff for 1961 present to you our interpretation of THE ANATOMY OF OUR SCHOOL . . .

Our Structure

Although Miss Emmons is closing the door to her teaching career, she will be remembered as one who opened the door of knowledge for many.

Dedication

Having devoted her entire life to the teaching profession, Miss Emmons is a perfect example of dedication to a profession. After teaching for 35 years, 34 of which have been spent at LTHS, she is now entering a well-deserved retirement.

Throughout the course of her teaching career, Miss Emmons has given of herself by being the guiding light which has led many students through the "portals of knowledge."

The influence of contact with her has helped many a young adult in becoming a better citizen with finer ideals.

In parting we would like to leave you with one thought, "You have acted well your part; there all the honor lies."

Amid her many activities, Miss Emmons still finds time to create various kinds of different candies.

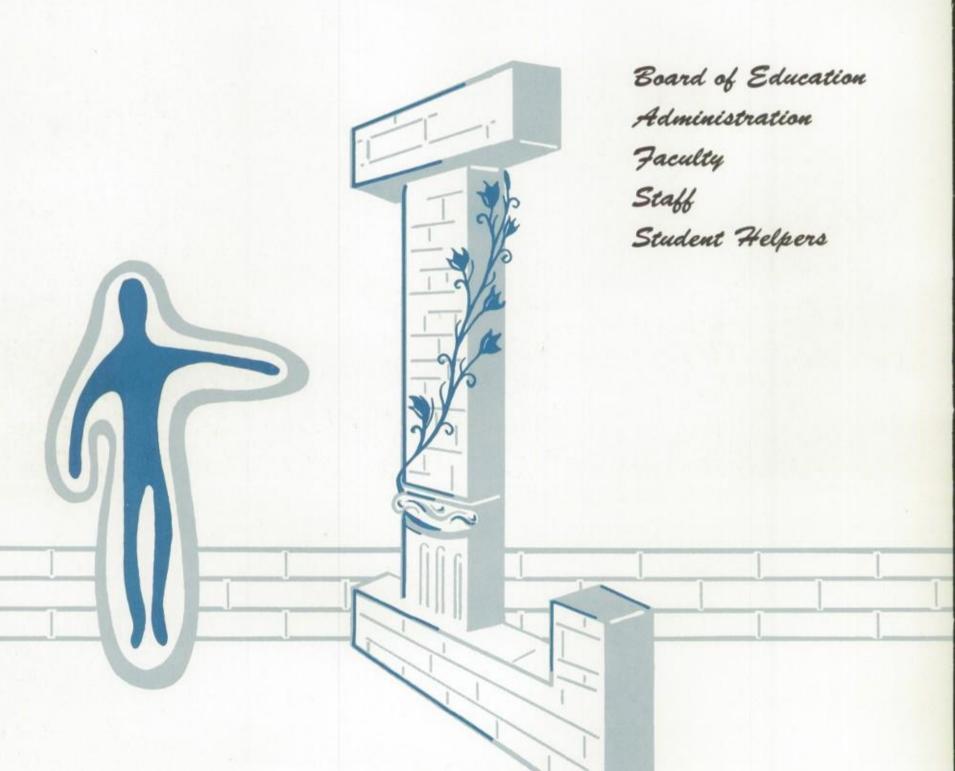

"C'est la France, classe." Miss Emmons not only taught languages, but also promoted interest in the culture of other countries.

As secretary to the Board of Education, Mrs. Faye Ayers assists them in many of their numerous undertakings.

Mr. Flink, our principal, encourages good sportsmanship at one of the pep assemblies.

The director of curriculum and guidance, Mr. Aiken, is well pleased with the results of the Junior tests.

Control Center

The administration and the Board of Education may be compared to the nervous system of our body, the school.

The administration creates a structure designed for the purpose of shaping the citizens of tomorrow. Through the actions of the administrator, it is determined whether a school is a poorly organized educational system or one that keeps up with the standards of today. Here at Lockport High School our administration is continuously striving for the betterment of the school, while always maintaining one of high caliber.

It is the obligation of the Board of Education to attempt to discover problems concerning the operation of LTHS and to formulate the wishes of the community.

Dr. Blatnik, our superintendent, and Mr. Smith, assistant superintendent, frequently confer and exchange ideas during the school year.

"This is the way it's done, son," Mr. Rutter says to Rick as he helps him with a basketball shot.

G. A. A .: Pleasure

For girls with restless energy who desire to learn new sports and improve old ones, and for those who wish to have some fun, our school provides for, and sponsors the Girls' Athletic Association. It is one of the largest organizations in the school; it is important too, because it is the only organization that offers extracurricular sports for girls. GAA gives the girls a chance to learn good sportsmanship, to help build character, and to meet fellow classmates.

The sports in which the girls may participate include tennis, volleyball, basketball, tumbling, bowling, and life saving.

Basketball and volleyball interclass and all-star tournaments are held at the close of their respective seasons. The members of these teams were selected on the basis of attendance, sportsmanship, and ability.

Miss Chapman's warm and friendly smile is the keynote of her personality.

Always ready and willing to help is GAA sponsor, Mrs. Pickering.

with a Purpose

One event of particular interest each year is the State Telegraphic Bowling Tournament. The ten girls with the highest averages from the first semester league bowl a three game series; the five highest scores represent Lockport in the state tournament.

Another activity offered by GAA is water safety. This valuable training may be put to practical use when they least expect it.

At the end of the year the girls were awarded pins and letters for all the time they spent in each activity.

With the exception of the seniors who will have but fond memories of the good times and comradeship that they enjoyed while members of the GAA, the girls look eagerly forward to the next season of activities and sports.

Get that ball, get that ball, get it, get it, get it! Barbara Black, Esther Maxwell, Linda Murphy, and Donna Jungles (on the bottom.)

Although a new comer this year, Miss Meisenheimer was warmly received by everyone.

The GAA officers for the 60-61 season were Marion Scheuber, secretary; Mary Jane Marco, treasurer; Kathy Nicholls, president; Georgene Skeldon, vice-president.

Neptune's Darlings

Certainly no one would object to being rescued by one of these girls. Jeanne Rodeghero, Sandy Wood, Merlene Gee, Marian Scheuber, and Carol Keeffer.

Intent on winning her senior life saving badge, Charlene Koren practices a cross chest carry on Jeanne Rodeghero.

Two of the better tumblers, Delores Powers and Linda Sandstrom, execute a difficult stunt.

Basket shooting was again made available this year for those girls who were especially accurate in their shots or wished to improve their shooting percentage. Ten girls are chosen for their ability to make baskets from eight designated points on the floor, and their scores are sent to the state office to represent Lockport. This year the girls placed a commendable second in the district. The ten best scores were Carol Mandeville - 10, Agnes Hawkins - 13, Betty Landon - 14, Joyce Cotter - 14, Marge Janosz - 16, Jesse Myers - 16, Bev Startz - 17, Diane Wolfe - 20, Karen Abrams - 22, and Barbara Woock - 23.

"Whew!" E. King, R. McGinnis, M. Janosz, J. Beshears, L. Harper, C. Smith.

Pep-a-Plenty

Cheering, the sparkle of almost every athletic contest, has become an organized activity at LTHS. The Pep Club strives to promote good sportsmanship and encourage school spirit by means of zealous cheers and spirited posters.

Some of the activities of this year's club were the sale of mums and pennants for Homecoming, and programs for basketball games. It was also the Pep Club that added variety and spice to our pep assemblies. Color nights and identifying pins were two of the new activities which proved quite effective.

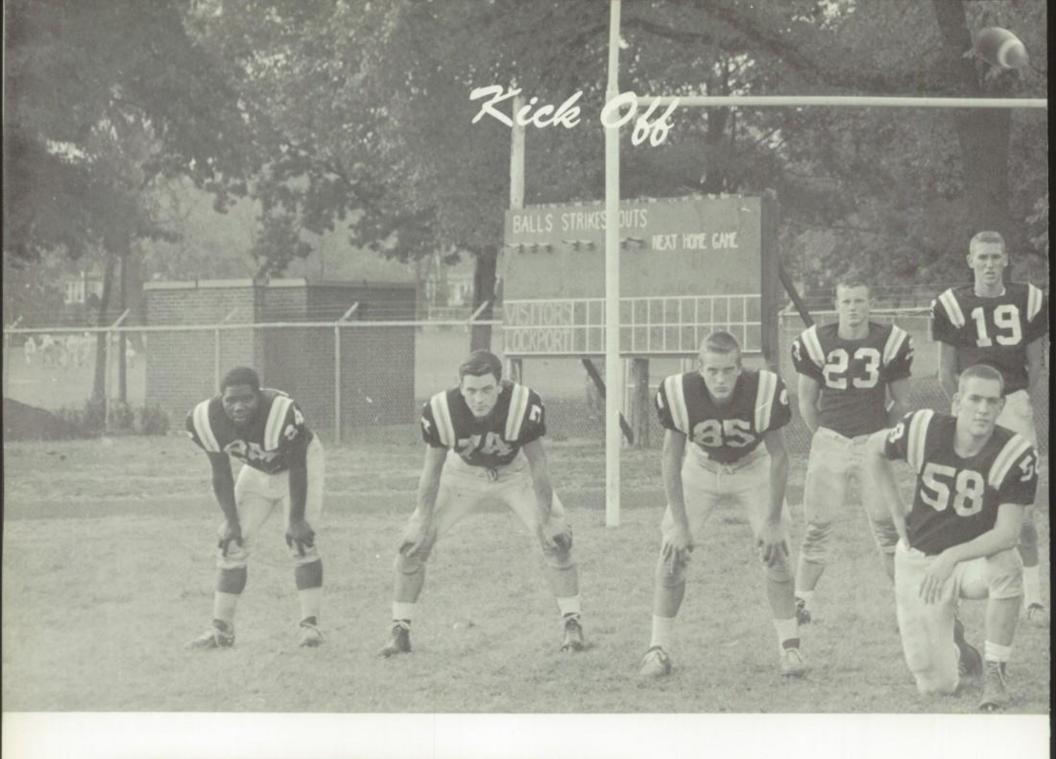

Thanks to the enthusiastic students composing the club, and its sponsor, Miss Evans, this was another successful year. Let's give the Pep Club a cheer!

During one of our pep assemblies, these Pep Club members "rounded up" another victory for the Porters.

The success of the Pep Club depends on the efficiency of the sponsor and officers. Georgene Skeldon, president; Grace Bachmann, vice president; Sandy Pauly, secretary; Janice Ayers, treasurer; and Miss Evans, sponsor.

The Porter squadron was ably represented by four outstanding co-captains, Alan Senffner, Rollie Bolattino, Bruce Fulton, and Cecil Underhill.

The 1961 Porters powerhoused their way to the most successful season since 1957. Under the leadership of Coach Zimmer and Assistant Coaches Blum and Deskin, the Porters plowed to a 4—4—1 record.

After losing last season's opening game with Evergreen Park by a single point, the ever-fighting Porters were bound and determined this was not to be repeated. Their intensive determination proved valuable when they trounced Evergreen Park 14 to 0.

The second game, with our traditional rivals Catholic High, Proved to be neither a victory nor a defeat. The outcome evolved in a score of 7—7, our only tie of the season.

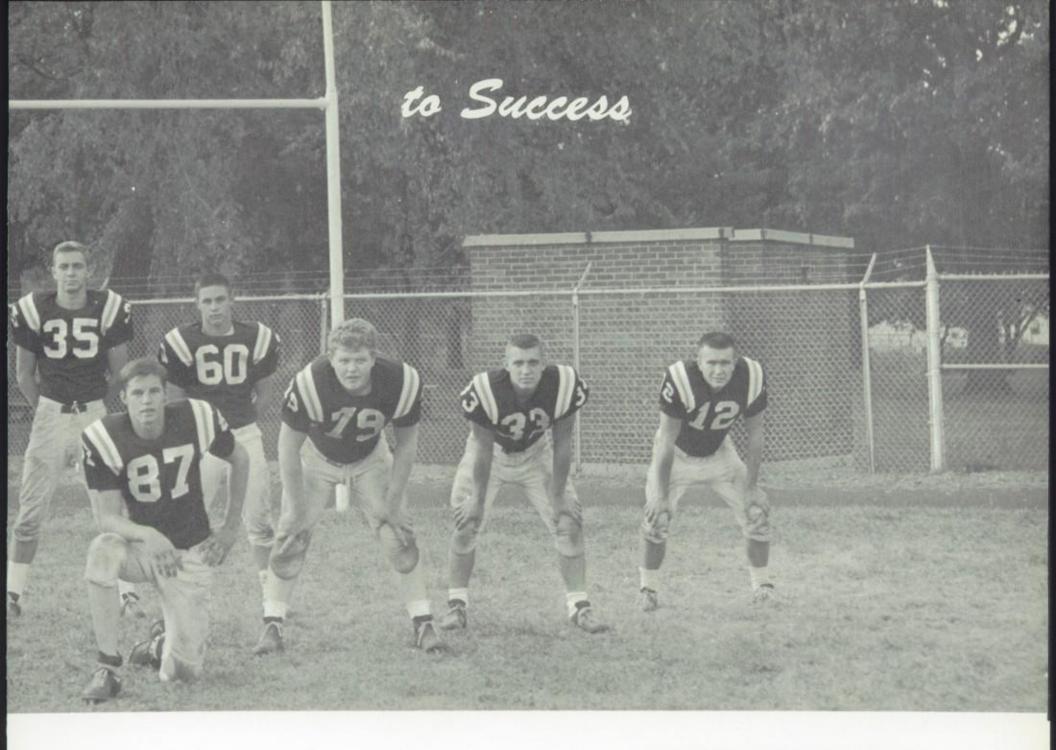

Argo then dealt us our first defeat. This was, however, quickly compensated with a glorious

Mr. Zimmer

Bill Rumchak

94

18—6 victory at Homecoming over the Kankakee Kays. Homecoming, being the most important game of the season, will long be cherished by all.

Although losing the next three games to Blue Island, Joliet, and Thornton respectively, the Porters gained valuable playing experience. This priceless playing experience ran true to form when the Porters walked away with the final two games of the year. Thornridge fell beneath the sharp spikes of the Porters when they were defeated 27—7. In the last game of the season, Bloom felt the full force of the mighty Porters. They, too, were forced to bow in defeat 27—20.

Without exception, the student body congratulates the Porter-Power Houses and their coaches on their "Kick-Off to Success."

The depth of the Porters was strengthened when last year's lettermen, Ted Lincoln, Dennis Strong, Tom Johnson, Bill Carr, Joe Simon, Jim Goeke, Joe Fabbre and Rich Spink returned to again offer their playing ability.

As the starting gun echoed through the air, the Porter multi-milers leaped into their second season. Cross-country is still considered to be in its infancy at Lockport; nevertheless, the spirit and determination exemplified by these fine athletes laid the stepping stones to success. These guide marks will be used by the future Porters.

The multi-milers were under the expert direction of Mr. Rogers from whom they learned the basic fundamentals and principles of cross-country. Mr. Rogers was assisted by a capable manager, George Nordstrom.

Dellwood Park again served as the proving grounds for the multi-milers. Day by day, hour by hour, the time on the grueling, two mile course was whittled down to fractions of a second. It is certain that these precious seconds will be decreased even more in the future by the unceasing efforts displayed this year by our Porters.

Runners come to your marks . . . Get set . . . Go! After two grueling miles, the panting Porters swept across the finish line to capture second place.

Although winning only over Argo and finishing fifth in the South Suburban Conference, the Porters never took the defeatist attitude. Instead, they always reared back into the race with the desire to do their best. Consequently, all learned the value of teamwork and the importance of good sportsmanship. These desirable characteristics, in turn, will eventually construct the tower to success when the first place trophy for cross-country comes to Lockport.

Varsity Encounters New Competition

This one's good for another two points towards a freshman victory.

The Lockport Porters, under the direction of Coach Bill Connors, have provided wholesome entertainment for the L.T.H.S. student body from November 1960 through March of 1961. Although not achieving an exceptional record, our Porters have displayed far more pertinent qualities. In the face of defeat, the spirit, spunk, and vitality of the "Big Five" was never subdued, but rather, the ever glowing zeal of goodsportsmanship was increasingly exemplified.

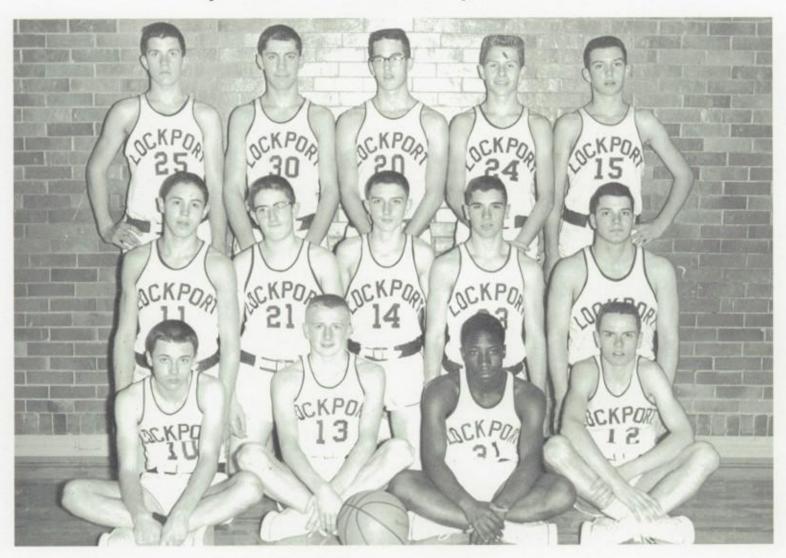

This year has opened the doors to a galaxy of new, hard-fighting competition, including such teams as Crane Tech and Joliet Township. In our first game with J.T. the Porters fell 47 to 61, but later roared back with a 50 to 48 victory. The same story applied to the first tilt with Joliet Catholic when we were defeated 65 to 40, but again the Porters came back to capture the second game 43 to 42. The Porters then went on to twice defeat Kankakee, who upset us in the District Tournament last year.

Needless to say, it's not how many you win but rather how hard you fight that counts. We may now conclude a most memorable season with one thought — We'll back you all the way, Porters, because we're loyal to you Lockport High.

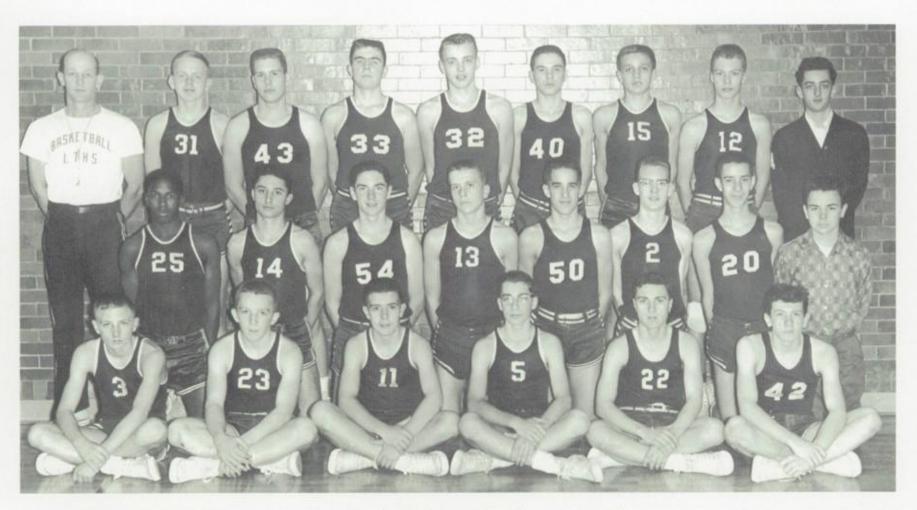

During the second Sophomore game with J.T., Ozzie Ludwig, guard, soars to retrieve a rebound.

Cindermen Set

Coach Jackson keeps a watchful eye on John Thudium and Gary Brainard as they demonstrate a splitsecond, baton handoff before the fresh-soph track squad.

Bob Gatson finishes 15 yards ahead of all opponents in the 220 relays.

Although the actual season was not as successful as the team had hoped it to be this year, it turned out several outstanding members under the leadership of its coach, Bill Jackson.

Selmo Campbell, a junior, captured the Will County broad jump record in this year's annual meet. Sophomore, Ed Duncan, now holds the school record for the high jump. Bob Gatson, also a sophomore, gained the school record for the low hurdles. Bill Carr, a senior, broke the school record for the half mile run.

Due to the efforts of these boys and the other members of the team, they took second place in the Will County Track Meet.

New Records

Ed Duncan demonstrates the proper form of a warm-up exercise to the varsity squad. Ted Lincoln, Selmo Campbell, J. W. Walton, Richard Orr, Jerry Genge, Lennie Meuer, Richard Mueller, Frank Kerschbaum, Rich Acuff, Bill Carr, Jim Machak, Coach Jackson.

John Adelmann represented his team well not only as a pitcher but also as co-captain.

Play ball! For many years to come these two, time-honored words shall linger in the minds of many Porter baseball fans. For the second consecutive season the Porter nine has championed the Regional Baseball Tournament and then gone on to establish a most impressive record. The final Porter scorebox revealed a very successful season of 13 wins and 4 losses.

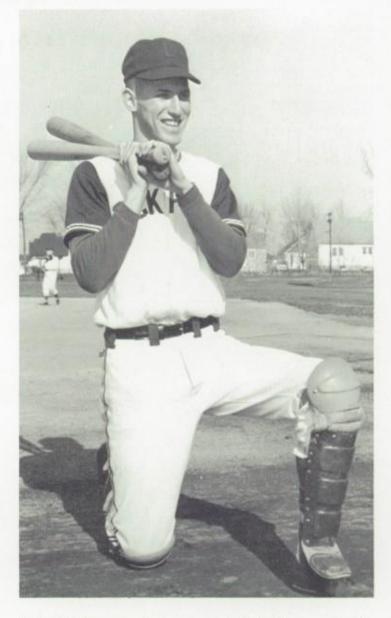

The first game of the season, a 3—2 victory over Carl Sandburg, set the pace. We then went on to defeat our next two opponents, Wilmington and Lemont, 6—1 and 12—4 respectively, but finally we fell to Kankakee. The next win, over Joliet Township, was brief for we later bowed to Argo. With four wins and two losses the Porters rounded the bases with three wins over Blue Island, Lemont, and Plainfield. The following game with Thornton of Harvey, which served as a season's highlight, went thirteen straight innings in a dead-lock tie of 4—4 before the umpire called the game, giving each exhausted team a well deserved win. Five out of the next six games were decisive Porter victories as we fell only once to Morton.

Following in last year's tradition, the Porters finished the season with a glorious 3—2 victory over Naperville.

Susan Harris and Jim Standard confirm their belief in the "eye for an eye" routine as they present Eddie Murrie with his share of the whipped cream.

The Student Council is a school activity which provides students with the opportunity of sharing in the governing of their school. But helping to govern the student body is only one phase of the work of our student council. Throughout the year the council operates a lost and found department in the Smith Foyer. During the Christmas season, members played mailmen by distributing thousands of cards to students and faculty members alike. Homecoming was successfully coordinated by the council as were many pep assemblies and two dances, "Twirp Twirl" and "Moonlight Ecstasy." The problem of finding an athletic emblem was brought into view and became the student council's special project for the year.

With the understanding guidance of Mr. Pryor, faculty sponsor, and the capable leadership of the co-presidents, Carole Rediehs and Eddie Murrie, Student Council has capably coordinated the action of the students for the betterment of the school.

Debbie Huls, the competent captain, has set an excellent example of untiring enthusiasm and leadership.

We did it again! LTHS has selected as her 1960-61 cheerleaders a peppy and spirited group of girls. The results? A lively school spirit and a deep sense of loyalty among the Porters. Such success could not have been possible without Miss Evans, the girls' sponsor. She inspired the cheerleaders to unite as a single unit to back the Porters all the way. They have truly acted as the spark to light the flame of victory. Congratulations to our fine cheerleaders for a job well done!

The undying spirit of the student body was aroused to even greater heights by the girls' peppy cheers.

This year's FTA officers have guided their club through another successful year. Donna Woodhouse, president; Grace Bachmann, vice-president; Harriet Wood, historian; Pat Woods, secretary; Mrs. Shoop, sponsor; and Richard Schultz, treasurer.

The Edward F. Worst Chapter of the Future Teachers of America has completed its eighth successful year at LTHS.

The organization, sponsored by Mrs. Shoop, is designed to offer the opportunity of learning more of the teaching profession.

Panel discussions, educational movies, and guest speakers provided the members with valuable information concerning their chosen career.

Actual teaching experience was gained by the Junior and Senior members who participated in the annual cadet teaching program. This two-day project, held in our local grade schools, helped many to decide if they really wanted to teach.

FTA members will find that the knowledge and experience received this year will be of great profit to them in the future.

Leaders of Tomorrow

The Future Farmers of America is an organization banding together all boys who are enthused with agriculture and all of the mysteries that it holds.

Besides learning all they can about their future careers, the members of the Future Farmers work very hard in order to qualify for election to the degrees of "Green Hand," "Chapter Farmer," "State Farmer," or "American Farmer," and many other awards of merit offered by the local, state and national organizations of FFA.

Mr. Lawerence, faculty sponsor, has helped guide the boys through another successful year.

The Future Farmers will find the skills and knowledge gained in FFA invaluable in future years when they become the "leaders of tomorrow."

Future Temperature Takers

Scalpel ... forceps ... sutures ... In a few years these phrases will probably be familiar to our "Future Temperature Takers." But for now, the Future Nurses are preparing themselves for the future by learning all they can of their chosen profession.

Members gained valuable experience by aiding with the Freshman physicals, while their knowledge of the field broadened through visits to various hospitals, and interesting talks by several speakers. Among the projects accomplished during the year were collecting for the March of Dimes and helping with the coat check at home athletic contests.

With the help of Mrs. Habenicht, FNC sponsor, the members have succeeded in preparing themselves for the future.

Candy Goddard, secretary; Mary Yedinak, treasurer; Sally Wohlgemuth, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Habenicht, sponsor; Julie Venckus, vice-president; Myrna Stevens, president.

Sandy Dranchak, Mrs. Habernicht, Joy Johnson, Judy Goddard.

Even the boys are anxious to help the JRCI George Mushro, Dave Adamson, Ray Grohar.

Ready, Willing, and Able

"Ready, willing and able" is an apt description of our Junior Red Cross. Under the supervision of Miss Debenardo, the club has tackled many worth-while projects and completed each with ease. Besides making and distributing programs for home football games, the group collected useful items for children overseas, sold peanuts to benefit charity, and constructed stuffed animals for underprivileged children.

LTHS congratulates the JRC for their fine work during 1961.

Stranger Than Fiction

Formed by students who have an avid interest in science, the Science Club, under the sponsorship of Mr. Pryor, seeks to gain knowledge of the many different fields included.

Mr. Pryor, Science Club sponsor, demonstrates the use of the analytical balance.

"No, Virginia, that's potassium chloride; we need potassium nitrate." Larry Flory, Virginia Ward, and Don Carlson.

Club members conduct special projects throughout the year, both at home and at their regular meetings. Homemade radio sets, and many other projects, and interesting speakers from numerous scientific occupations, provide members with knowledge of their careers, including college requirements and job opportunities.

Although the Science Club is only two years old, it will continue to grow and become important in the future as progress is made in the area which is "stranger than fiction."

Business World Beware

The main goal of the Future Business Leaders of America is acquiring knowledge of the business world. Research is done on the placement opportunities and requirements for jobs.

FBLA held a campaign week from October 31 to November 4, the purpose of which was to inform the business students about the club and its activities.

Among the projects that the FBLA has successfully completed under the capable supervision of their sponsor, Mrs. Manwaring, are a doughnut sale and a field trip to a business concern to observe its operation. Perhaps the biggest project was the compiling of a booklet of rules for punctuation, capitalization, term paper writing, and so forth which they hope will become an accepted standard at LTHS among English and business teachers alike.

We have only one more message about these industrious students:

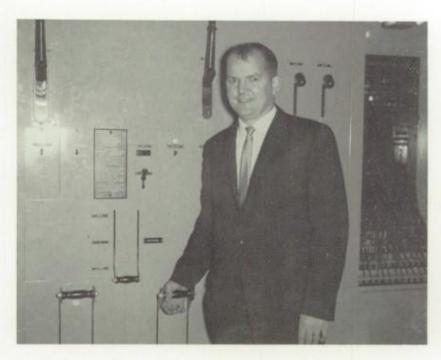

Business World, Beware!

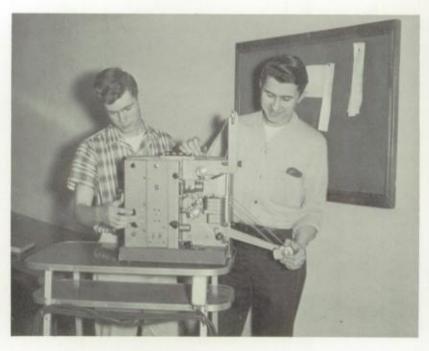

Kay Lewandowski, Jolene Dewald, Annmarie Gorecki, and Barb Traylor contributed much time and ambition to the completing of the FBLA handbook.

Carol Sowa, reporter; Georgine Hellberg, reporter; Carol Lowe, treasurer; Donna Maske, president; Janice Voltarel, vice-president; Sandy Phelps, secretary; and Mrs. Manwaring, sponsor, discuss future plans for the FBLA.

Besides teaching the members the skills in handling the projectors, Mr. Jorgenson demonstrates the techniques of lighting.

Sam Adkins and Don O'Connor start the day by checking the equipment to be sure it's ready for action.

Ready ... Roll 'em

Always willing to lend a helping hand are the members of the Projectionists Club. These boys are available throughout the day to aid teachers with the operating of projectors. The public address system, used in all the school assemblies and special programs, is also operated by the members of this club. Mr. Jorgenson's fine leadership and instruction are responsible for making these boys the capable projectionists they are.

Concentrate, boys; there's always a way to outwit your opponent.

Checkmate

After three successful years at LTHS, the Chess Club is still growing in popularity. Their sponsor, Mr. Beseman, has instructed the members in the skills and strategy of chess.

Concentration, they will agree, plays a major roll in this absorbing game. The club provides wholesome, leisure time entertainment and promotes skilled thinking for each participant.

Ready for an intriguing game of chess are STANDING: Ray Marrison, Phil Woock, Mr. Beseman, sponsor, Dave Marrison; SITTING: Terry Gray, Jerry Madden, Joe Lawson, John Lund.

"Where have you been?" asks Mr. and Mrs. Stone, Ron DaRosa and Sylvia Ziesemer, as Abe, Barney Ritter, relaxes innocently on the couch.

As the curtain rose on the new school year, it revealed the all new Forensic Speech Organization. This club gives students interested in dramatics a chance to show their ability and gain valuable experience.

One act plays and assemblies provided an opportunity for Miss Narkus and Mr. Tipler, their faculty sponsors, to bring out the hidden talents of many students.

Who knows — we might have some future stars with us.

... Will Sing

"Do ... re ... mi ...," the A Cappella officers tell us that practice makes perfect. Left to right: Sandy Smith, secretary; John Moroz, treasurer; Dan LeGrand, vice-president; Sally Davis, president.

Under the expert direction of Mr. Donald F. Meints, the LTHS chorus brought enjoyable music to many people. Eyes were bright, and voices were pitch perfect as they presented the show themed Spring Concert April 28th. Those in the audience thrilled to see the singers putting their hearts into song.

Presentation was not the only advantage the vocalists received from their membership. Many of them enjoyed a trip to the Concordia Concert in Chicago where they heard the lilting sounds of the professional perfection. The LTHS Band Concert was enhanced by the blending voices of the A Cappella Choir. In all their many activities the singers found time for lots of fun along with their musical work.

All in all everyone who saw them perform could truly say that the songsters are "alive with the sound of music."

Band Brings

One of the most popular activities at Lockport Township High School is the band. Under the baton of Ernest Caneva and Herbert Tatroe, the band has grown so large that it has become necessary to divide the group into several smaller groups, enabling each to function more efficiently.

The pep band was responsible for helping to generate school spirit at our assemblies and home basketball games, while the marching band entertained at all of our home football games, and helped to make the parades in Lockport a greater success. We are all familiar with and proud of the achievements of our fine concert band.

On December 18 through the efforts of the concert band and chorus, traditional carols of the season were presented to the audience at the annual Christmas concert. Again on March 5, the music lovers attending the 28th annual spring concert were entertained by the beautiful Manzoni Requiem and delighted by Rush Street Tarentella.

Fame to L. 7. 74. 5.

While the concert band was making its impression upon the public, the marching band was also helping to spread the fame of our band by winning more first place trophies. Again this year, North Central College gave the Porter band first place in their homecoming parade. During the summer, the band made an excellent showing at the Lions International Parade held in Chicago, and was named one of the top five bands at the Illinois State Fair in Springfield.

Besides putting on successful marching and playing demonstrations, the band members displayed their agility in other fields. They combined their abilities with those of the chorus and came up with the annual Music Department Christmas Dance entitled "Holiday Sleigh Ride." On January 21 "Rhapsody Entree," the annual band banquet sponsored by the Band Boosters, was enjoyed by the musicians, their families and guests. The speaker for the evening was Dr. Mark Hindsley, Director of Bands at the University of Illinois. Late in February the band members and directors as well, enjoyed a winter holiday of skiing, skating, and tobogganing in Wisconsin.

Lockport would indeed be a silent place if it were not for our fine band. Thank you, band, for filling our lives with music.

Our Pep Band can always be counted upon to lend enthusiasm to our home games and variety to our assemblies and pep sessions.

Hours of planning and hard work helped make "Holiday Sleigh Ride" a success.

Mr. Guido Schumann, Mr. Cameron Dystrup, Mrs. Frances Landon, and Mr. Francis Blogg are vice-president, president, secretary and treasurer of the Lockport Band Parents' Association, which helps support the band in all of its activities.

Busy selecting the music for tomorrow's band rehearsal are Mr. Tatroe, assistant director, and Mr. Caneva, director.

During the year the band officers, Barb Traylor, secretary; Randy Thomas, vice-president; Chuck Pastore, president; and Sharon Johnson, treasurer, work together in planning the numerous band activities.

Lock ... a Treasure

"OK," says Mr. Sampson, LOCK sponsor, as he checks a stamped hand.

ASSISTANT EDITORS: Lorel Geddes, Merlene Gee, and Sally Johnson.

The LOCK room is the center of activity for all LOCK staff members.

Deadlines, deadlines, deadlines! Deadlines are the plague of all LOCK staff members, but without them, the yearbook could not successfully cover the activities of the school year. In order that the LOCK may perform more proficiently, there are two separate staffs, the editorial and the business staffs.

The editorial staff is primarily concerned with the structure of the yearbook including the layout, dummy, copy, and proofreading. The members of the editorial staff work long and diligently in order that a true picture of Lockport Township High School can be given in our LOCK.

The business staff's main concern is that of helping to get the books sold and delivered. Because the students pay only half the cost of the LOCK, the yearbook staff sponsors a dance after every home game in order to raise money. Another duty of the business staff is that of helping with the student identification pictures.

Without the counseling of its sponsor, Mr. Gordon Sampson, the LOCK staff would be unable to function. The LOCK is, indeed, important to every student, for within its covers are contained the many cherished memories of days at Lockport High School.

Keeping Time

The TIMES is out! Mr. Ennis, Betty Landon and Pat Collofello, co-editors; Ron DaRosa, advertising editor; and Bonita Brake, business editor, gather to criticize and enjoy the latest edition.

Where's your copy? Headlines? Do you know when you can type my article? Oh, I'll never make that deadline!

These words and many others, probably uttered by members of the TIMES, have been heard during the school year. Circulating throughout the body of the school, the TIMES spreads news far and wide to all the students. Behind the circulatory system is the ever busy sponsor, Mr. Ennis, who has completed his second year at LTHS. Under his capable leadership the school paper has shown steady improvement.

Three individual staffs, the editorial, advertising, and business staffs, are responsible for each issue of the paper. From the editorial staff comes all the writing and drawing which is enjoyed by all. Besides keeping time with current school events and sports news, various feature articles have made appearances. Latest fads and fashions were displayed while an exchange column broadcasted news from across the country. And what paper is complete without humor, gossip, and joke columns to keep everyone happy?

Advertisements of various businesses, found also in the TIMES, are handled by the advertising staff. Last but not least, the business staff conducts all sales and subscriptions of the paper.

Thus the TIMES completed another busy but enjoyable year recording all those important times which make the history of our school. The TIMES will never be forgotten.

Passing their candles through the flames of scholarship, character, leadership, and service, each new member realized that a great responsibility had been placed upon his shoulders. He must live up to the ideals of the chapter not only as an obligation to himself but to his school as well.

This year 42 new members and 8 honorary members were elected to the James McKinnon Smith Chapter of the National Honor Society. Carrying on the year's activities were 24 seniors. During the beginning of the year the NHS acted as ushers for the incoming students and later sponsored a freshman assembly explaining the extracurricular activities. The chapter also bought a new flag for Lockport's campus. As a money raising project they sold school stationery.

Under the capable leadership of Mrs. Mitzit and the officers, the group carried out their year's project, tutoring. Students who felt they needed help in any subject submitted their names and were willingly given assistance by a NHS member. We are proud of the members of the National Honor Society and of their service to the school and to the community.

Upperclassmen Receive

Reverend John Bengston, chaplain of the John Olson Post of the American Legion, proudly presents the distinguished American Legion medals to this year's recipients, Carole Redichs and Rolin Bolattino.

Mildred Harper accepts a pen and pencil set and a medal from Col. Eric Bischoff, as special recognition for her performance in the American Legion Oratorical Contest.

In place of a "gold-plated pitchfork," the DeKalb Agricultural Award was presented by Mr. Lawrence to George Anderson, for his eminent vocational activities.

One of the last and most memorable highlights of the school year was the Awards Day Assembly of May 19, during which students were honored for their outstanding achievements.

The first awards to be presented were twelve American Legion honor certificates. Of these twelve candidates a boy and a girl were selected as winners of an award of exceptional distinction, the American Legion medals. Both the faculty and the students took part in choosing these top seniors and also in selecting the DAR winner. She was chosen on the basis of dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism.

Every year the Lockport Women's Club contributes a scholarship grant to a college-bound senior who it is felt would benefit from such financial aid. This organization also gave music and art camp scholarships to three underclassmen. A relatively new award to be presented at Lockport is the Mathematics award sponsored jointly by the Mathematical Association of America and the American Society of Actuaries. Another innovation to the awards was the Home Economics Award which was presented to the senior girl who excelled in scholarship and activities in the Home Economics Department.

The Awards Day Assembly was climaxed by the passing on of the senior hatchet and trowel by the president of the class of 1961 to next year's senior class president.

Millard Ruddell gratefully accepts a scholarship grant, to be used in aiding him in his quest for further knowledge, from Mrs. Eunice Ruark, a representative of the Lockport Women's Club.

Honor and Recognition

It is a familiar sight to see Carole Rediehs behind the lectern addressing the student body, exemplifying the characteristic of leadership, a necessary qualification of the winner of the DAR Award.

Mrs. Morrison presents the Home Economics Award to Mary Ann Smrekar for her achievements in this department during the past four years.

With the passing down of the traditional hatchet and trowel presented by Rollie Bolattino, president of the senior class, of 1961, to Bob Zitzke, president of next year's senior class, go the privileges and responsibilities of every senior class.

As winner of the Mathematics Contest at Lockport, Ron Miller received the Mathematics Award from Mr. Beseman, who acknowledged Vic Benson and Tom Hillock as runners-up in the contest.

Awards Reflect

The musical abilities of Rena Grepares and Charlene Giardina were rewarded with Music Camp Scholarships, presented by Mrs. Eunice Ruark, on behalf of the Lockport Women's Club.

Georgia Volling, finalist in the National Merit Scholarship tests, Dave Beavon (not pictured), and Tom Hillock, runnersup in the contest, have the distinction of being in the upper one per cent of all high school seniors in the United States.

Congratulations were in order not only on Awards Day, but also at graduation when outstanding seniors were honored for their scholastic and attendance records.

To rank highest scholastically in a class after four years of high school is extremely praiseworthy. For this achievement, the valedictorian of the graduating class was honored with a gold medal. Ranking second in the class also deserved special recognition. The title of salutatorian was shared by three students this year.

For outstanding scholarship in science, mathematics, and English, one deserving senior was awarded the Bausch and Lomb Science Award and another the award from the American Chemical Society.

On behalf of the National Honor Society, President Tom Johnson presents Mr. Flink and the school a new fifty-star American flag.

Scholarship

The valedictorian of the Class of 1961, Pat Collofello, graciously accepts the gold medal awarded to her by Dr. Blatnik.

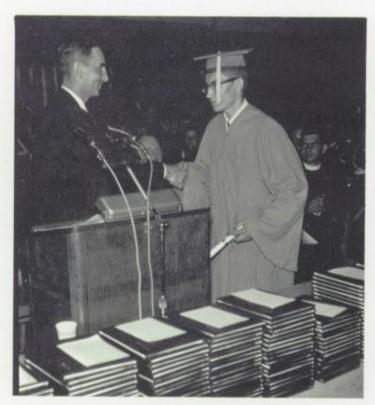

Barbara Rauworth, Donna Maske, and Russiel Zyla, ranking second in their class of over 300 seniors, shared the title of salutatorian.

They said it couldn't be done! The seemingly unattainable goal of perfect attendance was achieved by Lenny Meurer, Frank Gutierrez, Barb Kapella, Lucy Allen, George Anderson, and Dwight Feryance.

On the basis of his high achievements in science, mathematics, and English, Tom Hillock received this year's American Chemical Society Award.

Mr. Zimmer and his powerful thirteen helped make our Homecoming the success that it

John Adelmann and Tom Barrowman made sure that the Independent float was one of the tops by adding their finishing touches.

Home

Exciting and exuberating is the perfect description of our 1960 Homecoming. The annual Friday afternoon parade that rolled past the enthusiastic parents, students, and friends was unprecedented at Lockport. The Senior class produced the first place spectacular "We'll squeeze out a victory." "We swan't a victory," which was constructed by the Sophomore class captured 2nd place, while the Junior class entry, "We're re-lion on our team," carried off 3rd place.

King Dennis Lapikas

Reigning over the gala festivities were Queen Susan Harris and King Dennis Lapikas.

On Friday night, the Homecoming crowd witnessed Lockport's gridiron battle against Kankakee. Later that evening the celebration ended with the alumni and students dancing to the music of the Rainbows. The Porters will long remember the 1960 Homecoming not because of the extravagant floats or the victorious game, but just because this was Homecoming.

The "S'want" for a victory flaunted by the Sophomores was captured with their very attractive entry.

The Seniors proudly display their first place float.

The Juniors pulled in a third place while "Re-lion on their team."

In a solemn closing scene of the play, the cast gives a thankful prayer.

"You Can't Take It With You"

Smiling appreciatively, Suzanne Knarr, student director, Miss Yvonne Narkus, and Mr. William Tipler display their gifts from the cast.

As the curtain arose on the Junior Class Play on the evenings of November 17 and 18, a hush of expectation enveloped the audience.

"You Can't Take It With You," a hilarious comedy by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman, is the unfolding of the very unusual, if not slightly eccentric, Sycamore family. Alice, the only really sane member of the family, falls in love with Tony Kirby, Jr., vice-president of the Kirby Company. The sophisticated Kirbys, after learning of their son's engagement, are invited to dinner at the Sycamore home. Upon arrival, they encounter firecrackers, skyrockets, Communistic literature, exotic candies, ballet dancing, and snakes. Alice then refuses to marry Tony because of the vast differences in their families.

As the curtain slowly closed, the cast was reassured of its success by the audience's response. They then understood that "You Can't Take It With You," only its memories.

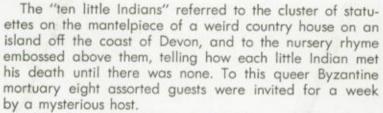

"Won't you try one of my 'Love Dreams'?" asks Charlene Koren of Doug Carlson as Chuck Hughes looks on.

After trying a Russian Judo hold on Carl Michaelsen, Melvin Rock apologetically helps him up.

The spinster of the play, Sally Davis, was dispatched with a hypodermic after being accused of driving an innocent girl to suicide.

While the guests were assembled for cocktails prior to going in to dinner, a voice came out of the air, accusing everyone present, including the two house servants of murder - - -

Then the excitement began and never let down until the final curtain.

Under the student direction of Grace Bachmann and the faculty direction of Miss Narkus and Mr. Tipler, the first mystery in five years was certainly a success.

The giddy Oxonian, Tony DeAngelis, choked to death of potassium cyanide.

The sound effects produced by our backstage crew made the play complete.

"7en Little Indians"

On December 26th sleighbells rang as couples drifted into the cafeteria. This year's annual Christmas dance, presented by the Lockport Township High School Music Department, was entitled "Holiday Sleigh Ride." As couples floated in, they found themselves surrounded by beautiful winter scenes of sleepy, little towns under the crest of a newfallen snow. The soft music of Don Adams and his orchestra filled the room and added to the peaceful atmosphere of Christmas. Highlighting the evening was the crowning of Chuck Pastore and Virginia Ward as king and queen, who reigned for the night. All who attended found many, many "moments to remember" in this thrilling evening.

The royal couple led the grand march in majestic splendor as Jackie Ward and Duane Gronwold followed close behind.

Moments

The traditional coronation kiss gave a romantic evening a fantabulous conclusion.

Ellen Hopkins, Virginia Ward, and Linda Murphy work earnestly to transform a few snowflakes into a breath-taking winter wonderland.

The music, atmosphere, and Faye Anderson all lend to the ecstatic look on Jim Goeke's face.

There is nothing more lovely than an evening under a shimmering moon, as the couples attending "Moonlight Ecstacy" soon found out. This year's annual spring dance, sponsored by the LTHS Student Council, was held in the cafeteria on March 11.

The couples danced dreamily under the soft glow of blue lights to the sweet flow of the music of Bill Carnegie and his orchestra. Many couples stopped to admire a lovely miniature waterfall at one side of the room.

As the magic hour of the crowning of the king and queen drew near, everyone gathered around the bandstand. After a few moments of suspense, the names of Virginia Ward and Dick Jones were announced. The royal couple then led the grand march.

This moonlit evening was one filled with memories and one which ended all to soon for everyone.

"Why, it's just beautiful," says Barb Cheney as Carol Lowe, Jerry Stapleton, Ed Stapleton, Randy Thomas, and Marianne Rossetto stop a few moments to admire the lovely miniature waterfall.

to Remember

Virginia Ward can't get over her amazement at being named queen again, but after this reward from King Dick, she finds she doesn't mind at all.

Couples drift around in the dreamy moonlit atmosphere set by the music of Bill Carnegie's orchestra.

3efore every pleasure there is some work as Ed Murrie, Cathy Pike, and Frank Treseder will tell you.

Creating quaint French chateaus on the Prom murals are Karen Novak, Rose Dulny, and Sharon Watkins.

"I just hope we get this fence done in time," says Rich Czuchra to Randy Thomas, Dave Morrison, and Phil Woock.

All agreed that this lovely fountain added to the enchantment of the Prom.

Parisian

The drawing and painting of murals was the beginning of the best Prom LTHS has ever seen. Parisian park, city, and country scenes were beautifully recreated under the capable leadership of the decoration committee chairmen.

While this preparatory activity was going on, the social part of the festivities was being carried out. First, the asking for and the accepting of a date was accomplished. Then the students busied themselves with a million and one other necessary tasks including shopping for formals and renting tuxedos.

At last the anxiously awaited evening arrived. The nervous young men hesitantly called for the equally nervous young ladies. Thus, the attractive couples set out for an exciting and memorable evening.

Many coke parties were the scene of frosty pastel formals and white dinner jackets. Conversation and compliments created a scene of carefree, delightful young adults.

Leaving the coke party to go to the long awaited Prom are Dave Beavon, Judy Mostyn, Millard Ruddel, and Nina Anzzolin.

Barbara Allen thanks Sally Wohlgemuth and Bill Findlay for the lovely time she had at the coke party.

"Oh, Mike, I'd love to go to the Prom with you!" says Nancy Leinen,

"I hope she likes them, too," comments Ray Morrison as he picks up his flowers at the Lockport Flower Shop.

Holiday

Finally, the apprehensive couples arrived at a "Parisian Holiday." Walking into the foyer, they were surrounded with city scenes, the Eiffel Tower, and a delightful sidewalk cafe. Entering the beautifully transformed gymnasium, they were surrounded with an unbelievable likeness of Parisian parks and landmarks. After drifting to the dreamy music of the Buddy Everett orchestra, the moment arrived to depart from the "Parisian Holiday."

An enchanting restaurant was the next place ornamented by the lovely young people. After enjoying delicious dinners, sleepy students drifted off into dreamland, only to wake up in the morning to look forward to a day of frenzied activity.

All in all, "Parisian Holiday" was termed the biggest Prom success in the history of LTHS.

Lorie just can't seem to make up her mind about which dress she likes best.

"Whoops, I almost stuck you that time," Jackie Ward says to Dave Morrison.

"Gosh, Jackie, are you sure it will all fit in the car?" asks Dave Morrison.

"I hope it's as nice as they say it is," comments Kathy Onfery to Tony DeAngelis as Bruce Hirner helps Phyllis Feely out of the car.

The King and Queen, Rollie Bollatino and Donna Jungles, dance dreamily after their coronation.

Dr. and Mrs. Blatnik enjoy the music of Buddy Everett and his orchestra just as much as the students do.

Evening

in Paris

The couples are drifting dreamily to the mood-setting music.

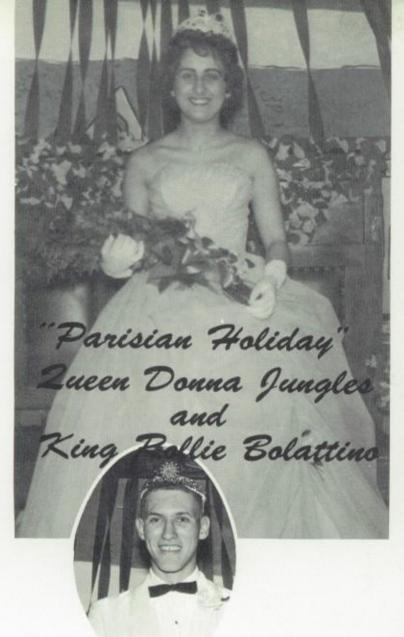

Taking a moment out to admire the beautiful fountain are Odessa Harbin and Floyd Harris.

Relaxing in the colorful sidewalk cafe are Bonita Brake, John Legg, Rich Spink, and Paulette Radd.

"Who says a king and a queen don't know how to have a gay time?" King Dennis Lapikas and Queen Susan Harris.

Mr. Rutter, the senior class sponsor, is very pleased after accepting a gift from the senior class.

As the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" rang out, the Class of '61 reached its climax. The so-called first stage of life is now behind the graduates. They exchanged their school learning and fun for the new and exciting experiences in the world that has just been opened to them. Into this exotic beginning the senior class of 1961 carries many, many wonderful memories of its alma mater, LTHS.

The End of the

Pat Miller and Joanne Schneider aren't too worried about whether or not Phyllis Glad can fix the zipper on the robe.

Confusion reigns as the boys get ready to take the big step.

Rollie Bolattino, president of the senior class, starts the ceremony with the pledge.

Beginning

Mr. Carroll Ward presents Shirley Blaskey her diploma and offers his congratulations.

"Your day is as you will it," quotes Bill Carr, one of the class speakers.

Sally Davis expresses the worthwhile idea, "Work, perseverance, and service yield success and happiness."

Soon the doors of the world will open to the class of '61.

Oh Lockport Alma Mater,
For you today we stand;
Sweetheart of the prairie,
Your heart is always true.
The portals of our learning
In halls we love so well;
Maroon and white, we're for you,
Our loyalty we pledge.
